NEWS OF THE DIAMOND.

STIMMELL SAYS THE CHIEFS WILL BE IN THE PUSH NEXT YEAR.

Manager Wells is saying Nothing But is Saving Words—Notes About Players Who Will Bear Richmond's Colors.

There are quite a number of surprises in store for the baseball public that could be sprung right now, but for many good reasons, the manager of the club, who has determined not to give them out now.

There will be some changes in the Richmond club and possibly some very big ones. It is not the intention of the management to put a club here weaker than the one that played here last season, and for purposes of making the club stronger than any team that has ever played here, several men who have played good ball here may give away to men who will play better ball.

ALL LOVING RICHMOND.

One great obstacle that has stood in the way of the success of the club here, has been the fact that the club has been managed by a man who has not been able to get the best of the city, and who has not been able to get the best of the city.

There is a man in the league now, and he has played last season. This player completely disgusted the patrons of the game here, by his dirty tricks. He seemed to like to be tough. He seemed to like to be tough. He seemed to like to be tough.

NOW FOR A BARGAIN SALE OF XMAS LEFT-OVERS, unused pieces, soiled articles, broken bits, odds, ends and Remnants! To be sure the store is not in ship-shape nor would you expect it to be after the crowds and crowds that taxed the aisles to their utmost capacity. This merry jam of Xmas revellers has left the store in a state of topsy-turviness—has left us with a great lot of wares that need but the aid of a little soap and water; a tack or a drop of glue to make them worth two or three times the price we place upon them. We'll make a strenuous effort to speedily get the store back into its accustomed channels—there's to be a thorough sweeping out of everything Christmasy.
